Back Home Pubs has no intent of harm or defamation of character to any person, living or dead. Reference to historical events may or may not have been researched. The stories are printed as they are told. Some may be folk tales. Although the editorial staff made every effort to avoid errors and correct them, some were inescapable.

Jestina "Tina" Smith, daughter of William H. Smith and Sarah E. Holman, was born on 2/7/1834 in Overton County, Tennessee. Her first marriage was to Charles Joseph Davis, the son of William Davis and Sarah Barksdale. He was born on 1/23/1824 in Overton County. He died as a Confederate Prisoner at Jefferson Barracks, in St. Louis, and was buried there on 1/23/1862. They had moved to Sinking, in southern Dent County, in the early 1850's. After his death, Tina and her Davis children, moved back to Overton County. While in Overton County, she married Birdene Henderson "Bird" Lawson. Bird was born on 3/4/1930, also in Overton County. Bird was the son of Jesse Lawson and Martha Richison. In the early 1870's, they moved to Shannon County, settling on Story's Creek, just north of Eminence. Tina died in November of 1904, Bird on 11/11/1913, both are buried in Culpepper Cemetery.
